Witty and humorous, this Guidebook by Dr Vincent Cuddihy is packed with fascinating insights into the country of the Clyde Coastal Path: Inverclyde, Renfrewshire, West and East Dunbartonshire.

The 140 pages contain 67 photographs, 11 coloured maps and a wealth of snippets on the wildlife, archaeology, history (Roman and Industrial) found along its length.

A delightful read whether or not you walk the path.

Foreword by Dr Sally Magnusson, author and broadcaster.
